

Future Challenges to Animal Science Education

23rd September, 2004
Royal Agricultural College
Cirencester

Programme

Thursday, 23rd September 2004

- 09:30 Coffee and registration
- 09:55 Welcome and Introduction by Chairman, Professor Sandra Edwards, BSAS President

- 10:00 Delivery
Professor Julie Fitzpatrick, Director of Moredun Research Institute, Edinburgh

- 10:40 Policy
Dr. Derek Fry, Chief Inspector Animals (Scientific Procedures) Inspectorate
Denis Chamberlain, Chief Executive Chamberlain Partners, Chairman of the Farmers Club

- 11:20 Education
The Rt. Hon. David Drew, MP for Stroud.
Dr. Jeremy Pollard, Science Lead Practitioner at Specialist Schools Trust, Head of Science at Treveglas, Community College, Newquay.

- 12:00 Discussion
- 12:30 Lunch

- Three sessions running concurrently
- 13:45 Schools
Chairman's address - Bill Graham Chief Executive FACE (Farm and Countryside Education)
What do we do? What do we want?

- Employers
What skills are really needed? How do we get them?

- Education
Chairman's address - Simon Heath – AFNET, Europe Network
What is the curriculum? How can young people be encouraged into Animal Science?

- 14.45-15:15 Tea
- 15:15-15:45 Discussion
- 15.45-16:00 Conclusions and summing up Professor David Leaver, Principal of RAC

✂ -----

Future Challenges to Animal Science Education

I would like to attend the one day seminar at the Royal Agricultural College on Thursday, 23rd September 2004. The fee is £50 which includes lunch and refreshments.

Name..... Organisation.....

Address.....

.....Tel.....Email:.....

Cheque enclosed for £50 made payable to BSAS. Please address to Future Challenges to Animal Sc Education, BSAS, PO Box 3, Penicuik, Midlothian EH26 0RZ. Payment can also be made by credit card – please contact the BSAS Office tel: 0131 445 4508, Fax 0131 535 3120, Email: bsas@ed.sac.ac.uk, www.bsas.org.uk