Become a BSAS Buddy

A Buddy is

- An informal point of contact
- Someone to meet in an informal environment
- Someone who will reflect, with you, on their experiences at university/early career work place and share informal hints and tips on a wide range of related elements
- Help build confidence, encourage and give support on a flexible basis

A Buddy isn't

- A counsellor
- A careers advisor
- A replacement for services, such as advice on finance or welfare
- A tutor or someone who will proof read assignments, documents and coursework

Benefits of having a Buddy

- Share experiences, practical advice, encouragement and support in a range of areas
- Learn from the experiences - students/those in early career
- Be part of the wider Buddy Up Scheme / Early Careers Forum and network that allows you to share your experiences
